BOUNDARY, RECRUITING & PLAYER ELIGIBILITY RULES

- 2016 8.If any association does not participate in the CBC baseball program with any teams at any level the players that live in that elementary school district will be free agents and can play for any association, they will not be counted as free agents.
- Change to 8. If any association does not participate in the CBC baseball program with any teams at any level the players that live in that elementary school district will be free agents and can play for any association. Their numbers will not be counted as free agents. If a player has played for an association under this rule for 2 years this is now their home association. In the case of playing for an association for 2 years and their original home association restarts their baseball program they do not have to return to that association. Players remaining at their new home association must have their playing eligibility verified by the Commissioner of Baseball and marked accordingly on the roster.
